

Stipulated Surplus Use By Business and Penalty Plan of Senate Finance

Statement of Corporation Purpose Would Go on File in Treasury, Penalties To Be As High As 35 Per Cent.

WINDUP SOUGHT

Invalidation of Wilcox Law Has It Said, No Effect on New York State.

(Copyright, 1936, By Associated Press)
Washington, May 26.—A plan to force certain corporations to state in writing just why they are building up surpluses was under study today by the Senate finance committee as leaders sought to speed the revenue bill to the Senate floor.

The statement of corporation purpose would go on file in the Treasury. Then, in after years, if the surplus were not used for that purpose, the government might crack down and apply heavy penalty taxes provided in existing law for corporations "improperly accumulating surpluses."

These penalty taxes amount to 25 per cent of the first $100,000 of income and 35 per cent of all over $100,000.

Under the present tentative proposal, the statements of purposes would be required of all corporations which retain more than 30 per cent of their income instead of distributing it to stockholders.

The proposal was the latest attack by committee members on the problem of tightening up existing law in an attempt to bring the tax bill more in line with President Roosevelt's request for revenue.

Mr. Roosevelt asked $620,000,000 permanent revenue to finance the farm program and additional costs of advance payment of the bonus Treasury estimates say the present Senate committee program, which is featured by an 18 per cent levy on corporation net income and 7 per cent on undistributed profits, would raise $560,000,000.

The chief executive also asked for $500,000,000 of temporary revenue, but the tentative Senate committee program at present contains only an estimated $82,000,000 in this classification. It would be sought through a "windfall" levy on certain processors who did not pay AAA processing levies.

No Sugar Tax

A Senate finance sub-committee agreed unanimously today to recommend against including a proposed tax of one-half cent a pound on sugar in the new tax bill.

Subcommittee members said too many complicating factors were involved to permit carrying the excise levy in the revenue bill, even though it would raise around $66,000,000 and lift the total estimated yield of the measure to about $620,000,000 of permanent funds requested by President Roosevelt.

Leaders hoping to have Congress on its way home before the Republican convention starts June 9 figure the next day or two will tell the story.

If the tax bill and the $1,425,000,000 relief bill can be extracted from Senate committees today or tomorrow and sent to the floor for debate, they believe that a quick wind-up is possible.

An eleven hour quest for additional revenue absorbed the Senate finance committee today as it entered final deliberations on the tax bill, which the treasury says now falls some $60,000,000 short of the $620,000,000 in revenue asked by President Roosevelt.

The committee gave some attention to proposals for boosting the individual income tax rates, but it also considered tightening up existing law which levels heavy penalties taxes on corporations "improperly accumulating surpluses."

One suggestion was that corporations withholding more than 30 per cent of income from stockholders be required to state the purpose of such accumulation of surplus. Then, if the surplus were not used for that purpose, the government might crack down with penalty taxes.

Still in Committee

The relief appropriation for next year was still in an appropriations sub-committee, with some members showing no disposition to hurry. However, leaders hoped to start debate on it tomorrow, with the tax bill to follow in short order.

The House committee investigating old-age pensions gathered to try and decide whether it would seek to have Mr. F. E. Townsend before the bar of the House on a contempt charge or turn him over to the courts.

The chairman, who aroused committee ire by walking out on a hearing, was still swamping denunciatory statements with it. The latest was a statement last night in which Townsend accused the committee of "erroneous abuse of power." Speaker Payne predicted contempt action, said "the house will not be divided."

The United States Supreme Court's death blow to the 1928 municipal bankruptcy act on the ground it transgressed state rights left few municipalities in other political subdivisions looking for another "out" in their bonding difficulties.

A letter in The Associated Press disclosed that certain states had not entered existing legislation to permit reduction of bonded debt through federal bankruptcy courts while in Washington, May 26 (AP)—The possibility of favorable action by the House ways and means committee today on the new Guffey-Vinson coal control bill was projected by Representative Sam Hill (D-Wash.) after a two-hour closed session on the substitute measure.

Representative Woodruff (R-Mich.), who opposed the original bill last year, told reporters he thought the new legislation was "all right" and said he was willing to "take a chance on it."

Judge F. W. Bliss To Be Memorial Day Speaker in Kingston

Public Memorial Services to be Held Sunday Evening in Municipal Auditorium—The Memorial Day Parade Will be Held Saturday Morning With Line of March on Broadway

Judge F. W. Bliss of Middleburg, Schenectady county, an associate justice of the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court, will be the speaker at the public memorial services to be held Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in the Municipal Auditorium. Arrangements for the evening service are being rounded into shape rapidly, and it is expected that many of the city churches who hold Sunday evening services will omit the church service so that the members of the congregation can attend the services in the Auditorium.

Judge Bliss has presided over a number of terms of Supreme Court at the court house, and is widely known in Kingston and Ulster county. He is an orator of note and will have a message that will be well worth hearing.

There will also be special music that evening and the WPA orchestra will render a selected program of music appropriate to the occasion.

This year the annual Memorial Day parade will be held Saturday morning at 10:30 o'clock with the line of march from Broadway to Academy Park. There will be a number of organizations in line and plenty of music. Major Hiltbrand is grand marshal, and later in the week the parade orders for Memorial Day will be printed in The Freeman.

LEHMAN SIGNS BILL

FOR EIGHT-HOUR DAY

Albany, N. Y., May 26 (AP)—A permanent eight-hour day, six-day week, was assured employees of state institutions today under a bill signed by Governor Lehman.

The law will go into effect gradually beginning July 1, and become completely effective by July 1, 1937. "I believe it is unfortunate," Gov. Lehman commented, "that many of these employees have been required to work 12 hours daily in the performance of duties which are exacting and nerve-racking."

Grim Fate of Miss Grimm

Buffalo, N. Y., May 25 (AP)—Miss Irene Grimm, trapped under the sidewalk at the bottom of a "man-hole" entrance to a downtown store basement, had pedestrians all up in the air trying to locate her as she shouted for help. They looked everywhere except under the sidewalk. Finally one searcher turned an ear to the ground and heard Miss Grimm tell him "Get me out of here; it's dark and lonesome." She explained she was overlooked in the store basement at closing time last night and tried to get out through an underground passageway which ended at the bottom of the sidewalk entrance.

Sherridan Appeal Denied

Roston, May 26 (AP)—The Massachusetts Supreme Court denied today an appeal for a new trial for Newell F. Sherridan, 27, former Boston choir singer and musician, convicted of murder in the first degree, in the drowning of his wife in Lake Singletary last July.

Several districts of states that did not have the death penalty under the law already had been afforded the right to hold a trial in the state courts, but the Massachusetts law, which had been enacted in 1928, had been held unconstitutional by the United States Supreme Court.

Five Homes Searched For Evidence Against Black Legion in Detroit

Raiders Seize Firearms and Literature; Action Taken on Information by Member of Secret Society in Michigan.

BOMBING CHARGE

Informant Says Hooded Vigilantes Responsible for Bombing Village President's Home.

Detroit, May 26 (AP)—Enlarging their drive against the Black Legion, hooded vigilante order, Wayne county authorities today raided five homes in the down river district here and found what they claimed was evidence that two recent bombings in Ecorse were inspired by the black robed band.

In the homes, which included those of two former Ecorse councilmen, the raiders seized fire arms and literature of the organization.

The raids in the Detroit down river district were conducted by Harry Colburn on information supplied by a member of the secret society.

The informant whose name was withheld, charged the hooded band was responsible for the bombing of the home of William W. Voisine, Ecorse village president.

Attended Meeting

Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea said that the informant related that "police officials and politicians" attended a meeting at which the bombing of Voisine's house was discussed.

Voisine himself charged that members of a secret night riding organization were responsible for the bombing. "There was a big gang of those fellows out here," he said.

McCrea quoted his informant as saying: "When Voisine's name was brought up at the meeting there were shouts of 'Let's take him for a ride' and 'Beat him up,' but a man was appointed to do the bombing and it took place two weeks later."

Examinations Wednesday of 12 Examination on murder and kidnapping charges of 12 men named in warrants for the slaying of Charles A. Poole whose body, pierced with five bullets was found ten days ago in the ditch of a township road, has been set for tomorrow morning. The men, four of whom Prosecutor McCrea has said confessed the killing, stood mute at their arraignment Monday and pleas of innocent were entered for them.

John Doe warrants for 12 more men have been sworn out. Dayton Dean, the prosecutor said, has confessed he fired the shots that killed Poole after becoming irked at the delay of his companions in bringing a rope intended for a "necktie party."

Today Dean said "I'm very remorseful. It's a funny thing, but I never had a feeling that I wanted to kill anybody that I can remember."

Concerning his enrollment with the black robed society, Dean said: "I was under an illusion. I didn't have any idea what I was getting into when I joined up two years ago. After I got in I had to stick, although it was against my principles."

"Positive Information"

Harry Colburn, chief investigator for Wayne county, Prosecutor Duncan C. McCrea, claimed "positive information" about the dictatorship aspirations of Black Legion leaders.

Colburn disclosed that seven deaths in the Detroit area in recent years, one of a radical, were being scrutinized for possible connection with alleged terrorist activities of the night riding order.

Arthur F. Lupp, described by his attorney as "chief recruiting officer" for the Black Legion, denied, however, that the society believed in taking the law into its own hands.

The investigation led to other cities, and to other states, as did the tentacles of the robed and hooded order, for which one spokesman claimed 6,000,000 members. That estimate came from V. F. Eminger, of Lima, O., whose name was found in Black Legion correspondence at Jackson, Mich.

At Lansing, Mich., Attorney General David H. Crowley planned to confer with State Police Commissioner Oscar G. Olanoff, on the subject of a statewide grand jury investigation of reports that the Black Legion was active in threats, kidnappings and even murder.

Aldermen Must Adopt Ordinance Approving Use of Park-O-Meters

Before Machines Can Be Installed As Requested By Uptown Business Men It Is Necessary That An Ordinance Be Adopted Legalizing Use And Installation of Machines.

Chief of Police J. Allan Wood when seen this morning stated that now that the Uptown Business Men's Association had voted in favor of the use of Park-O-Meters, or a similar device, that the next step that must be taken before the machines can be installed and used was the adoption of an ordinance by the Common Council legalizing the use and installation of the machines.

The chief said that to cover the area the business men suggested would require the installation of approximately 250 of the machines.

There are several types of machines on the market, and which one will be selected is not known. It is expected that an enabling ordinance will be introduced at the June meeting of the council.

The type of machine that seems to be the most popular is one that requires the dropping of five cents in the machine for half hour parking, and the dropping of two nickels in the machine if the car owner desired to park for one hour period.

Syracuse is said to be installing 250 of the machines at the present time.

Since The Freeman carried the story of the action taken by the uptown business men yesterday in recommending that the machines be installed in the uptown business section to relieve the parking problem there has been considerable discussion of the question. Some of the local lawyers say that although they have not looked up the question, there was doubt in their mind whether the city could charge an auto owner for the privilege of using the public streets for parking.

Aldermen Have No Authority To Designate Location of Terminal and Bus Committee Outlines Procedure for Bus Lines.

THE REPORT FILED

Report of the Bus Committee Is Unanimously Approved by Aldermen at Session Monday.

The Common Council unanimously favored the location of the uptown bus terminal on the property of Hyman Aduchefsky on North Front street at a special meeting called Monday evening at the city hall when the report of the bus committee recommending the North Front street site in preference to the Crown street location was adopted without a dissenting vote.

The council, however, has no authority to designate the location of the bus terminal, the report stated, and outlined the mode of procedure that must be taken by the bus lines. Under the provisions of the Transportation Corporation Law and a city ordinance adopted in 1925, the bus lines must petition the council for a change of route, and in the petition designate a new place for a bus terminal. The council then approves the change of route, which changes has to later be approved by the public service commission.

The only absentee at the meeting was Alderman Aaron of the Twelfth ward, who had been excused by President Schwab, as Alderman Aaron had been unable to be present.

As this was a special meeting called only for the purpose of receiving the report of the bus committee no other matters were taken up. The report was read by City Clerk E. J. Dempsey and on motion of Alderman Cornwell, seconded by Alderman Reilly, was unanimously adopted by the council.

Y. W. C. A. Campaign Closed With $5,107

The final supper of this year's budget campaign of the Kingston Y. W. C. A. was held at the Y. W. on Monday evening with practically every captain and worker present. As usual the tables were made very attractive with the vases of pink carnations. The invocation was pronounced by the Rev. Arthur G. Carroll, pastor of St. James M. E. Church.

After the excellent supper with singing for sauce, Mrs. G. N. Wood, president of the Y. W., welcomed all present and called upon a good friend of the Y. W., Judge Joseph M. Fowler to speak to them. Judge Fowler said he really wanted to be present for he could not count a year complete unless he attended at least one meeting of the workers for the year's Y. W. C. A. Budget Campaign. He had come to the final returns and while he realized that there was not quite the cheerful enthusiasm of former years for the final supper, yet, knowing the girls who had been working, the judges felt sure that the results whatever they might be, would be as much as they were about to report because of their best efforts, and he hoped for a fully satisfactory report.

Mrs. Wood in behalf of the Y. W. C. A. Directors heartily thanked all of the captains and workers, Mrs. Terwilliger who had charge of the supper and the women and girls who had assisted in serving them, their splendid Campaign Manager, Mrs. Fred Holcomb, the Press of the city, the speakers and the clergy who had been their guests for their splendid services and encouragement throughout the whole campaign.

The Business Girls had an announcement to make to the effect that on Wednesday evening, they would have their regular supper at as early an hour as possible, which would be followed by an open meeting to be held at 8 o'clock, to which all were invited. A fine musical program would be given by Mrs. Adah Mae Curran, soprano soloist, and Miss Mansfield, pianist, both of Newburgh.

Mrs. Holcomb, Campaign Manager also had words of thanks and appreciation to give to the entire community for the support of the people of Kingston, to the Executive Committee and Directors who had been among the hard workers, together with the captains and workers, the ministers and speakers, The Kingston Daily Freeman and The Kingston Daily Leader, very particularly to Mrs. Charles Terwilliger for doing double duty in arranging for and putting over the fine supper and also being one of the hard-working solicitors, to those who had on any evening given clever short entertainment programs, to Miss Bell and Mrs. Rignall for making the singing so so enthusiastically, to the staff for so cheerfully and wholeheartedly working overtime, to Mr. Burgevin for adding the encouragement of the pretty flowers for each supper and to Mr. Atkins for the loan of the adding machine. After all of these thank-yous had been said, came the anxiously awaited reports which raised and as to prizes given out, thus closing the campaign.

Royal Arcanum Hold Dinner and Dance

More than 100 men and women attended the dinner and dance of the Royal Arcanum, at the Clinton Ford, Rosendale, Monday night, when a very enjoyable time was had with Jack Linton and his orchestra entertaining.

Several short speeches were made during the interim between the turkey dinner and dance, talks being given by Walter I. Rodgers, New York City, past grand regent of New York state; Peter Connelly, Beacon, district deputy grand regent and George Siegel of New York City, state supervisor. Attorney Joseph Avis of Kingston, chaplain of Willwyck Council, acted as toastmaster.

"This being the first dinner and dance of Willwyck Council," said Attorney Avis, "I wish to welcome you all here and say that we have a splendid nucleus to enable us to carry on to greater heights."

Past Grand Regent Rodgers, when he addressed the gathering, said, "If this gathering is an evidence of a new life of endeavor, you are off to a good start; and the start, no matter what time it may be in, is the greatest thing in life."

"We in the fraternal work get a great inspiration out of this kind of gathering. There are milestones in our lives, and I hope you hold many more such gatherings to make new friends and broaden your acquaintances."

"The purpose of the Royal Arcanum is for happiness and good, will, to enable you to know your neighbor better. Friendship means a lot when you come down to the acid test. I hope we all meet again to renew our acquaintance and have a good time."

District Deputy Grand Regent Connelly was surprised at the large gathering at the first social function of Willwyck Council, which is only a month old. "You typify the new order in the Royal Arcanum. We are more than 60 years in existence. We have had our depression and are coming out. You here tonight are the evidence of this."

"The Royal Arcanum is one of the greatest organizations in the United States and Canada, made up of all creeds. What you put into it returns 100 fold. Therefore I ask you men to continue giving your time and effort to this association. I belong to other organizations, but I've found that the Royal Arcanum is the real one to be associated with."

State Supervisor Siegel said, "I am pleased at this fine gathering for Willwyck Council, the council being only one month old. It is remarkable. I am pleased to see you ladies here, because now you can see that when your husbands are out at Royal Arcanum meetings, they are in good company. Friday night we are to officially organize a council in Newburgh, and we'll be delighted to see representatives of Willwyck Council there."

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for the support given me in organizing your local council. I appreciate the efforts put forth by Jose Alvarez, A. H. Lipgar, J. H. Barier, Al Ronder, Herbert Glass, Raymond McAndrew, Joseph Avis and Donald Curry."

Toastmaster Avis turned the program over to Jack Linton, who entertained royally with his orchestra, offering special numbers featuring members of his musical ensemble.

Jack directed his band in a rendition of "Bolero" to open the bill; Phil Toffel, trumpeter, played "Song of Songs"; five boys from the orchestra played "Where You Were a John" as a special feature; Jack Linton did a saxophone solo, "Battleground"; one of his own compositions, and closed the entertainment with "Let Us Forget," a medley of wartime songs, concluding with "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Assembly dancing was in order for the rest of the night.

The Royal Arcanum is a non-sectarian, non-political order with a fraternal beneficiary. It is in existence 59 years with 2,000 councils in the United States and Canada, 150 of these being in New York state. From its inception to date, three hundred millions of dollars have been paid to widows and orphans. State Supervisor Siegel told a reporter.

Willwyck Council's charter is still open for the acceptance of members without an initiation fee. Those interested may obtain particulars from Maurice Baker, chairman of the membership committee.

Officers of Willwyck Council are: Philip Kearney, regent; Paul Terpening, vice regent; J. H. Barier, orator; Maurice A. Baker, past regent; Joseph Avis, chaplain; M. A. Tweed, guide; Dr. H. Mandell, secretary; Donald Curry, collector; Al Ronder, treasurer; A. H. Lipgar, warden; Arthur Van Gels, sentry; treasurer; Thomas Kelly, Maurice Bach and David Zucker.

Always a try in the molasses. An overmarket now we're reporting so rapidly now. It's time to begin planning for the next depression.

Bus Terminal On North Front Street

year, and that he had proceeded and was making the premises ready for a bus terminal. The public meeting thereupon was adjourned.

Thereafter your committee mailed out letters to the owners of all the bus routes using the uptown terminal in the City of Kingston, and asked them to meet with this committee on the 16th day of May, 1936. Accordingly on said date, at 8 p. m., your Committee on Railroads and Buses interviewed the owners of each of eleven bus lines in the City of Kingston using the uptown bus terminal. Six of the owners of said bus lines stated to this committee that they were in favor of the North Front Street Terminal. The six lines in favor of that terminal were represented as follows:

DeWitt Dominick of Hudson Transit Corporation.
Henry J. Deyo of Mountain View Coach Line, Inc.
Jesse Van Kleeck of Eagle Bus Lines.
Loran Merrihew of Pine Hill-Kingston Bus Corp. and Woodstock-Kingston Bus Corp.
John DuBols of Diamond D Bus Lines.

All of these people were in favor of the North Front Street Terminal. Five of the owners representing the remaining lines were in favor of staying in the Crown Street Terminal. These were represented as follows:

John Ferraro of the Saugerties-Kingston Bus Line.
William J. Deyo of the Kingston-Creek Locks Bus Corp.
Harold Acker of the Kingston-East Kingston Bus Line.
Frank Van Gonsic of the Arrow Bus Lines.
Henry Myers of the Rosendale-Kingston Bus Corp.

After hearing the bus owners as above, this committee called before it Hyman Aduchefsky, a lessee of the North Front Street Bus Terminal. He showed your committee a lease for the property on North Front Street for one year, together with letter from the owner of said premises agreeing to extend the term of the said lease a period of two years additional, so that the committee believes that the North Front Street Terminal would be a permanent proposition for a period of at least three years. Your committee also called before it Fritz Illert, and asked him whether he had a lease on the premises on Crown Street. He showed your committee a telegram signed by some person connected with the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, to the effect that they would lease the premises to him for a period of one year at a rental of $100.00 a month. Your committee then asked Mr. Illert if a lease had been prepared pursuant to the terms of that telegram, and Mr. Illert said that it had not been as yet. Your committee then asked Mr. Illert to have the lease drawn up and filed with the City Clerk on or before the 18th of May, 1936.

On the 19th of May, 1936, there was filed with the City Clerk of the City of Kingston a lease from the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company to Fred H. Illert, which lease is dated May 15, 1936, and covers the Crown Street Bus Terminal premises. Said lease is for a period of three (3) years, so that the Committee believes that the Crown Street Terminal would be a permanent proposition for a period of three (3) years.

Your Committee has also received a letter from the President of the Parent-Teacher Association of School No. 7, to the effect that said association desired that the bus terminal be located at a place other than Crown street. Your committee has also received a letter from the Federated Council, Parent-Teacher Association, of the City of Kingston, asking it to keep in mind the safety and welfare of the children of the City in locating the uptown bus terminal.

In view of the above, your committee recommends to your honorable body that the uptown bus terminal in the City of Kingston be located on the property leased by Hyman Aduchefsky, and located on North Front street in said city. Your committee has been advised by the Corporation Counsel of the City of Kingston that neither this committee, nor the Common Council have a right to designate the location of said terminal, but that under the procedure outlined in the Transportation Corporation Law, and an ordinance of the City of Kingston adopted in 1925, the procedure as to location of a bus terminal is as follows: The bus lines petition your honorable body for a change of route in said City, and in said petition designate a new place for a bus terminal. Your honorable body then approves said change of route, which change has to later be approved by the Public Service Commission of the State of New York.

Your Committee, therefore, recommends that your honorable body approve such change of routes and location of terminals, when, as and if such petitions are placed before your honorable body.

Your Committee is making this recommendation is guided by the fact that a majority of the bus owners using the uptown terminal seem to prefer North Front street.

Your Committee further recommends that the proposed change of route to be considered by the bus lines be as follows: Up Broadway to Albany avenue; Albany avenue to Clinton avenue; right on Clinton avenue to North Front street; then left on North Front street to the proposed new bus terminal; and that this route be used both going to and coming from the said proposed new terminal.

Your committee further recommends to your honorable body that it should be definitely decided upon that the buses involved in the proposed new change of terminal should not load or unload passengers on the city streets, wherever said terminal is located.

Respectfully submitted,
FRED L. KENN,
CLARENCE L. ROBERTSON,
JOSEPH E. STEIN,
Committee on Railroads and Buses

Officials Probe Six Deaths in Plane Crash

Amos, Quebec, May 26 (AP)—A Canadian passenger plane crash in which six men died drew official investigators today to the fastnesses of northern Quebec which kept the disaster a secret for two days. The circumstances of the crash, which became known only late last night after the plane plunged to earth last Sunday, were still enveloped in mystery. A General Airways pilot, Gath Edwards, searching for the missing ship, found the over-turned wreckage about half a mile from Chibougamau Lake, about 100 miles northeast of this mining town and 250 miles northwest of Quebec. Aerialists were inclined to attribute the crash to Sunday's adverse flying conditions, but government and General Airways officials hastened to the scene for an inquiry. The pilot who located the wreckage brought back the first definite word of the disaster last night. He said the broken plane was lying on its back, but declined to give further information until the airways officials arrived. The deaths in the disaster were the first in the years of flying to and from the gold mining country. Pilot Clarke, who left a widow and child, had been flying in that area for eight years.

Zioncheck "Some Goer," Says "Sugar"

New York, May 26 (AP)—Mrs. Marion Zioncheck, who became the bride of the whirlwind congressman from Seattle four weeks ago, said today that she was "a pretty fast goer," but had had to "speed up her old southern style to match her husband."

The Zionchecks granted an interview while the bride lay in bed, wearing a pink satin slip, with her blonde hair in hairpin curlers. "We're rather informal this morning," explained Congressman Zioncheck, who was barefoot, in a loose-slung bathrobe. He perched against the headboard of his bed, and, between puffs at a cigar, asked his blue-eyed bride:

"Like married life, Sugar?" Mrs. Zioncheck, with the covers tucked under her arms, looked reflectively at the ceiling and said, "Oh, I'll say! I wouldn't change for the world!" She smiled at eight visitors sitting on the twin beds, and added, "I was considered a pretty fast stepper in my home town, but he's a faster goer than me. He can nearly puff me down."

"A faster goer than you, huh?" guffawed Congressman Zioncheck. His bride, all smiles, responded, "I'll say, darling. Mrs. Zioncheck said she and her husband hadn't quarreled yet, although we have yipped at each other a time or two."

GLORIFIED HITCHING POSTS

Reaction to the opinion of uptown merchants that Park-O-Meters will solve the parking problem in the uptown business section has begun to come to The Freeman in the form of unsigned letters, which the paper cannot publish. However some of the reasons and reactions to the suggestions of the merchants express the sentiments of The Freeman and so will be listed below.

Says one writer: "Why not look at this parking situation in a sensible manner? Give it some thought before sending a lot of money out of town for a lot of old-fashioned hitching posts with slot machines attached to them." The company making the machines will receive all revenues from them for several years.

Another opinion: "This may be a new method of welcoming prospective customers to the uptown business section. If so, and it is adopted and installed, the smart business man will be moving out of this area.
 That will mean a short boom, would help the real estate situation and probably move some of the business
 down to the Broadway area where the street is wide and the sun shines
 on both sides of the street."

The above suggestion might be a solution. By forcing business to expand from the relatively small uptown section to Broadway more space
 would be covered and consequently there would be much more room to park and the Park-O-Meters, adopted to prevent congestion would accomplish their purpose, although in a different way from the original intention.

And again: "The whole business area uptown is concentrated in not to exceed six 'squares.' At either end is a parking ground, and nearby are four garages giving space between them all for at least 1,500 to 2,000 automobiles. These places are right where they are needed so badly.
 The reason for the congestion uptown
 is not caused by the parking of cars
 by the customers—it is caused by the business men themselves and their employees who park in the 'No Parking' and 'One Hour Parking' areas
 from one hour to eight or nine hours without moving the cars or getting a ticket which carries with it a 'money' fine. In other words, the business people uptown use the streets in front of their own places
 for their own private parking grounds. Then they would attempt to commercialize on their holdings
 by using meters so that their customers could pay for the privilege of being able to park near their stores
 or offices."

The Freeman believes that the congested public of Kingston and surrounding area, who will pay the bill, has as much an interest as the merchant in the parking problem.
 This paper invites comments from all sources either for or against the Park-O-Meter or any other solution to the problem. All communications will be published if the writers will sign their names. Let us have a frank discussion of the problem from all angles and both from the standpoint of merchant and consumer.

THE AILING LEAGUE

The League of Nations is staggering lately. The "poor old League" has suffered blow after blow. Japan has left it. Germany has left it.
 Italy has openly defied it. All these powers have broken their pledges
 and dashed their responsibilities, and not a word has been said by the League.

But honest and responsible statesmen do not rejoice. And Americans for the most part scorn it. We do not belong to the League, and some of us do not want to belong.
 But our people cannot help seeing that it has done some good work in certain ways, and that some work
 really is needed, with more authority
 than it has, to keep the old world
 from destroying itself through wars of conquest. It was bad, as some people now say, to the ap-

the League with an unjust war-settlement. If it were reorganized without regard to the Versailles Treaty, on the basis of the present world as it is, recognizing present
 needs and problems, it might become a much more useful organization.
 If it dies through flouting and neglect, and nothing takes its place, the world will be worse off.

THE TOWNSEND REVOLT

When Dr. Townsend walked out of the congressional committee room,
 where he and his famous pension plan were under investigation, he created a situation embarrassing for everybody concerned. There is a good deal of sympathy for the old gentleman, for the inquisitors were treating him rather roughly. He seems sincere in promoting his remarkable panacea, and evidently regards it as a holy cause. He also has a considerable bump of self-esteem. Thousands of his followers obviously regard the inquiry as an outrage. It would be unfortunate if this old gentleman were jockeyed into a position of martyrdom. The Townsend Plan is to be judged on its economic merits and political methods, apart from the personalities involved.

There can be, however, no questioning of the authority of the committee to conduct such inquiries,
 summon witnesses and compel them
 to testify. On the whole, the exercise of this power is one of the most useful functions of Congress. And it adds nothing to the sum total of public service, professional and amateur, for a spokesman of the old age
 pension plan to refer to the chairman of the committee as "a loud clapper with a cracked dome." The inquiry should continue, but it would be well for the congressmen and the Townsends to treat each other more respectfully.

TREATMENT FOR THE LAME

I sometimes wonder whether the new methods of treatment for pain
 and stiffness in muscles and joints
 have not made us forget some of the methods used hundreds of years ago.
 There are more "pain killers" available now than ever before, many of which do excellent work in emergencies or when other methods are not suitable, and all of which get away to a great extent from the necessity of using opium.

When we think of the hot baths
 used so many years ago to ease pain
 and prevent stiffness as compared with the modern method of using pain killing drugs, the hot baths may seem crude and clumsy. However,
 the big point about easing pain and getting stiff joints loosened up is that the hot water allows movement
 without causing too much pain and increases the blood circulation in the part.

As you know objects are "lighter"
 under the water and so the raising
 or movement of a crippled or sore arm or leg under water is done with less effort and pain than when out of the water.

In Europe there are many "bath"
 sanatoriums in charge of physicians of high standing. These physicians are called balneologists (balneo meaning bath).

The Berlin correspondent of the Journal of the American Medical Association reports a paper read by Balneologist Harrel before the Berlin Medical Society recording the good results obtained by the underwater method employed at Warm Springs, Ga. Films showing patients undergoing systematic exercise under water were exhibited.

At this same meeting Dr. Scholtz of the Vischow Hospital in Berlin
 spoke of his experiments with lame persons. Movement in a crippled arm or leg is almost always first made possible by the removal of its weight in water; after the first movement, continued regular bathing and exercise increase the strength of the limb and its power to control movement. The removal of the weight of the limb because it is under water, allows the patient to exert his whole power and attention on the movement instead of on the effort of the lifting of the weight of the arm
 or leg.

A child shown by Dr. Scholtz who had been entirely crippled by infantile paralysis had now the normal
 use of his limbs after receiving this treatment.

This underwater treatment should be of great help in loosening up old stiff rheumatic joints, or in injured
 joints where the pain of movement
 has brought on stiffness.

Gypsy Weather

By MARGARET BELL HOUSTON

SYNOPSIS: *Superstitions, the mystery which surrounds the Gypsies, seems to touch a young clown, a young cowboy,
 and a restaurateur named Fazzini
 who is in the city of New York.
 The story is told in a series of
 chapters, each of which is a
 chapter in the life of the Gypsies.
 The story is told in a series of
 chapters, each of which is a
 chapter in the life of the Gypsies.*

Chapter 20
SINISTER CURRENTS

"Would you know Fazzini from one of his brothers?" inquired
 Dirk. "From the chef, for instance?"
 "This was no chef," smiled the astute Dinwiddie.

Dirk was silent and Logan said:
 "I have also the information regarding Merritt's Wonder Show.
 You asked me for it some time ago,
 but it took time. The show went broke, it seems, and disbanded, down in Rome, Georgia. Akin, an associate of mine in Atlanta, got the facts from the circus book-keeper
 before the troupe melted away.
 While he was not in time to find Merritt, the book-keeper told him all
 there was to know about Torrobin
 and the clown."

"Torrobin, he was listed, and his boy, the clown, was known as Roddie. Here's Akin's letter. Shall I hold the flash so you can read it?"
 "Tell me what he says," Dirk answered. So, as he had little interest now in Torrobin and the clown.
 "You know, of course," said Logan, "that this J. Torrobin and his boy are the same pair you had me
 investigate at S. Jones and his son, after the rodeo. I found then they gave practically no address at all to the rodeo booker, and disappeared
 after the rodeo closed in the circus
 they had no address either, joined
 it while it was in Jersey, and lived with the troupe."

"It was the boy's dare-devil riding that got them the circus job." (Logan was reading from the letter
 now) "Merritt was under the weather at the time, and Torrobin became a sort of sub-manager while the show was in Jersey. Torrobin was heartily disliked by the troupe,
 though the boy was rather a favorite, especially with Sefforita Leonor, the equestrienne. The boy was inferent to Leonor, which was just as well. Leonor's previous love had been Carlo, the lion-tamer, and Carlo was not receptive to any change of heart on Leonor's part."

"The boy was injured during his act the night the show started south.
 Merritt, however, had had no intention of taking the act south with him, because of Torrobin's unpopularity. The troupe dated all its bad luck from the hiring of Torrobin."

"There was certainly bad luck
 aplenty, rainy weather not being the least of it. Then, just before the show left, both Carlo and Leonor disappeared. Nobody knew why at the time, but they realized what foretold the two had shown when Madame Chowdhury, the fortune-
 teller, was arrested further down
 the road on charges of blackmail.
 Carlo and Leonor were involved,
 and the authorities were also out for Torrobin. The four had been conducting a form of the old badger game, I understand. Leonor was petite and pretty, and acted as a decoy."

"Merritt's circus had been a clean little show up till then. Merritt was already sick, and pretty near broke, and the business of Chowdhury finished him. Nobody knows where he went."
 "Torrobin, Leonor and Carlo, are still at large. Leonor, it is thought, escaped to her home in Rio de Janeiro. Carlo may have gone with her. Torrobin may still be in New York. A boy who looked and rode like Roddie, the clown, is said to have pulled down big money in the rodeo there lately."

"Well," said Logan, "that's about
 all. This J. Torrobin or T.
 Jones seems to be pretty much of a fix. Want me to try to get more about him?"

Dirk said no. And since their watch at the gate had accomplished
 its end—"Not the end you think,"
 he heard himself say—it might be discontinued after tonight.

"Mrs. Joris is too ill," he said, "to go out... to need attendance of that kind."

Dinwiddie remarked:
 "I thought she looked sick. I thought she walked like it."
 In his room Dirk read again the letter from Logan's associate. It contained no further allusion to Sefforita Leonor, and no allusion at all to any equestrian substitute she may have had. He had not questioned Hope's account of herself,
 had not doubted that she was a par-

son's daughter—a cowboy parson's
 daughter—in need of work, and taking it for a day in the circus.
 The Rev. Silas Devine—if such a person existed—must be pushing
 now over the telegram regarding a lady named Hope to whom he must speak at once. Or it might be that he knew indeed a Hope—a relative,
 a daughter, even—whom it had seemed safe enough at this distance
 for one in difficulties to impersonate.
 Could it be? The circus was stopped in El Paso? Might not Leonor have learned there of one Hope Devine? ...

Leonor, Carlo and Leonor, thought
 Dirk.
 "Dirk knew now on which Fazzini Hope had called. Her visit had not been to Tony, but to Carlo, Tony's brother, the brother who had cleaned out the Araby, the brother who traveled with a circus. Carlo was in hiding in Tony's house, and Hope had crept out to him by night,
 almost too ill to stand."

In hiring Logan and Dinwiddie
 Dirk had wanted her protected, not accused. Even tonight when these findings had proved so inexorably
 her place in the puzzle, he had not been willing to give them the key to that place.
 Logan and Dinwiddie had laughed
 at Martin's account of an intruder
 the night before. They believed it now only in the light of Hope's visit to Fazzini's house. He had come to her one night, and had almost been discovered. She had gone to him the next. That was what they believed.

THEY did not know what he—Dirk—knew, that the man she had gone to see did not dare leave his room, would not risk discovery of any sort. Dirk knew more than this. He knew that Martin was over-wrought. A man who imagines it his duty to shoot when no such duty
 has been assigned him, may also imagine other things. Martin, Dirk told himself, had never heard a voice at all.

In any case, whoever, whatever
 she was, Hope—he could not think of her by any other name—was unquestionably in trouble, and ill. She might have taken part in Madame Chowdhury's schemes ignorantly,
 might even be innocently involved,
 and unable to extricate herself.
 ("My shield is scarred," she had said, holding the big book in her arms.)

He did not know, of course, the name of her people in Rio de Janeiro.
 She would not give it to him, would spend her strength in denial and terror if he should ask. Strange that he who was perhaps her only friend
 should seem her greatest enemy.
 Still, certain facts remained. Guilty or innocent, she was ill. Rupert could not come to her, nor could her family.

She belonged to him, alone.
 Now that he knew her secret, he could watch over her with clearer
 eyes.

Graves came the next morning,
 and learning from Dirk of young
 Mrs. Joris's reluctance to see a physician, came to her room ostensibly to give her reassuring details about her husband.

Hope, he reported afterward to Dirk, had listened attentively.
 "She was in bed, and I ordered
 her to stay there. The trouble?
 Anemia, low blood-pressure, general
 run-down condition. Danger? ...
 Well, yes, if we don't get hold of it.
 But I think we will."

"Rupert, now. He's better, on the whole. But he's making no light what interest he appears to take in living comes in the form of worry over his work. Certain cases he has on hand. I want either you or Sanford to go up tomorrow, and reassure him."

Dirk asked Sanford to go. The work had piled on his own desk, and it was nine o'clock that evening before he dismissed a tired secretary
 and went home.

It was snowing again, steady
 flakes that froze against his windshield. Things were quiet when he reached the house, only Timothy stirring about, preparing to lock up.
 Mrs. Joris, Timothy said, was not so well, had had a sort of stifling spell. They had called Dr. Graves.
 That was at six o'clock. She was better now. Mary was with her.
 Dirk went up to his room.

He was undressing for bed when the door-bell rang. He heard Timothy, who had gone upstairs, come down again. Timothy's knock sounded presently on Dirk's door.

"It's the Rev. Silas Devine," said Timothy. "He's just arrived, sir ...
 by phone."

Dirk made a difficult case, incorrect.

WEST SHOKAN

West Shokan, May 25—Newly placed American Legion flags flutter over the graves of all known soldiers dead in the various town of Olive cemeteries. A detail of Phoenixia Post, American Legion, made the annual visitation Sunday afternoon.
 Legionnaires Joe Schoonmaker,
 Jerome Newman, Echies and Miner comprised the detail. While enroute the party stopped at Broad-head where they paid well-deserving homage to "Uncle John Dudley," Olive's last survivor of the Civil War.

The last Thursday evening meeting of the Olive Rebekahs was well attended by the members, upward of 40 being present. Refreshments and a social program were enjoyed at the close. Plans are under way for the Rebekah part to be taken in the Odd Fellows' memorial services to be held Sunday evening,
 June 7, at 8 o'clock in the Olive Bridge Methodist Church.

Gus Hansen has been doing some interior decorating at the residence of Abram Constable.

 and vicinity on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Lane of Mt.
 Pleasant were entertained Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Constable and family on Main seeding of oats last week, also potatoes and some sweet corn were planted.

 Avery at Traver Hollow Friday evening, and later at West Shokan Heights.

The West Shokan Ladies' Aid met at the church Monday evening where
 a couple of hours was spent quilting. The regular all day's meeting will be held as usual on Wednesday.
 This will probably be the last meeting of the season and a large attendance is planned for. Visitors are cordially welcome.

Damage from the recent frosty
 nights is quite generally reported.
 Last year the corresponding week in May was quite similarly cool, although there was no frost damage
 attending.

Howard Trowbridge of Olive
 Bridge Heights and assistant, Mr.
 Weber, sprayed several dairy barns hereabout last week. Mr. Trowbridge is well equipped with a truck
 mounted with power sprayer.

WILL HE FALL FOR IT AGAIN?

(Chicago Daily News)

TALKS TO PARENTS

By BROOKE PETERS CHURCH
 Many children are killed or injured every year in the United States by automobiles and most of the accidents are avoidable. A little more consideration of others, a little more intelligence on the part of the drivers, and wiser and more intensive training of the children is needed.

The children are partly responsible for the situation. Many deliberately court danger by running into the street, sometimes pretending to get in front of passing motor cars.
 Even when there are sidewalks
 some prefer to walk on the shoulder,
 sometimes even on the concrete of the roadway. In winter they may be found coasting on roads already dangerous with ice.

What are their parents doing? If the child is hurt or killed they complain of the danger of the roads and the carelessness of the driver. Roads are, however, meant for traffic, not play grounds, and the parents are to blame for not teaching and watching their children better.

Bicycles are another hazard. In crowded city streets one may see small boys, sometimes two on a bicycle, weaving in and out among the vehicles. That motorists avoid them is often as they do in little short of miracles. Bicycles either should have special paths or should be prohibited on crowded thoroughfares.

If, instead of considering themselves, motorists and pedestrians would consider the other fellow: if schools would give lessons in safety
 first on the road; and if parents would penalize any child they found taking an unnecessary risk, the total of fatalities could

Local Men Visited Revere Copper Plant

George W. Canfield and William C. Kingman of the Canfield Supply Co., have returned from Rome, N. Y., where they went to observe the manufacturing processes of sheet copper, brass pipe, and copper tubing, as made in the modern mills of the Revere Copper & Brass Company, located at Rome. While there they were the guests of R. M. Lake, an executive of the company, who conducted them through the mills and showed them the various manufacturing processes.

When interviewed by a Freeman reporter, Mr. Kingman said that the plant covered several acres of land and is very modern. The sheet copper mill was erected about six years ago at a cost of about six million dollars, and is the largest sheet copper mill in the United States.

They were shown first the copper as it arrived at the mill in bar shape, stacked in the yard like cordwood, each piece weighing about 600 lbs., 99 per cent pure. These bars were passed into the mill and melted in the huge crucibles, and then zinc or other material, was added to make the formula suitable for the material to be produced.

Messrs. Canfield and Kingman were shown the regular daily processes, and one of them was a block of pure copper about 30 feet square and 4 inches thick which came red hot from the oven and was passed on to a traveling roll and passed through a compressor, backward and forward, until it assumed the shape of flat sheet copper. This was then passed automatically into a vat of acid to clean it. From there it went into cold water to wash the acid off and finally it went into a steam vat so it would dry quickly, and in less than 10 minutes the solid block of copper was transformed into a sheet of copper 240 feet long. Mr. Lake then conducted them showing the various processes of cutting, polishing and preparing the copper for market.

In the type and pipe mill, made by the same company, was also to be seen a marvel of modern equipment, there being only one mill in the United States larger than this one. In this mill there is one machine which cost $250,000. Into it a block of red hot copper was placed and the machine transformed this into a length of copper tubing in less than three minutes.

The visitors were then taken through the warehouse where one million pounds of finished copper was ready for shipment, while in the mill another million pounds was in the process of being finished.

An interesting bit of history is connected with the Revere Copper & Brass Company, as the founder of this business was Paul Revere of the famous midnight ride. He was a copper manufacturer and the business has grown to its present volume and his grandson, E. H. Revere, is on the board of directors.

At the Rome factory they employ 3,000 men. A factory of this kind would be a wonderful addition to the city of Kingston the visitors noted.

Daughter of Curie May Enter Cabinet

Paris, May 26 (AP)—Mme. Irene Joliot-Curie, whose parents gave radium to the world, may become the first woman member of a French cabinet, it was learned today.

Political sources said Leon Blum, drawing up a new ministry to take office when the leftist-controlled Chamber of Deputies convenes in June, was likely to offer the daughter of the late Madame Marie Curie a place as under-secretary of state.

Mme. Joliot-Curie's husband, Dr. Frederic Joliot, has been active among the Socialist intellectuals with whom Blum, Socialist leader and premier-designate of the leftist "people's front," is associated closely.

Mme. Joliot-Curie has been known principally as a scientist. She and her husband have been working in the Curie laboratory at the Radium Institute, founded by her mother, seeking to produce radium substitutes in greater quantities.

Her father, Pierre Curie, died while she was still a small girl, but she was trained by her mother to carry on the family tradition of scientific research, already crowned by her parents' discovery of radium.

AGRICULTURE

Uncle Ab says your ammunition is not nearly as important as your aim.

Most soils in New York state are either too cold or too wet to plant field beans before the first of June.

Three new dairy herd improvement associations were formed in April; one each in Albany, Allegheny, and Genesee counties.

May 31 has been set as the final date to receive emergency crop loan applications in most of the southern and southwestern states, and June 15 in all other states.

Helpful hints on potato growing in New York state are given in Cornell bulletin E-239. Single copies may be had free from the New York State College of Agriculture in Ithaca, New York.

Problems of the dairyman, the fruit and vegetable grower, the poultry and egg producer, and the livestock producer, have a place on the program of the American Institute of Cooperation in annual session at the University of Illinois, June 15 to 19.

Failure to receive top prices for eggs may be due to several things, but mainly to four; poor quality, because of breeding or improper handling of eggs on the farm; poor grading; poor packing; or failure to choose a receiver or dealer who recognizes and pays for quality in eggs.

Installs Air-Cooled Machine
James Carro of the Broadway Beauty Salon, 567 Broadway, has installed a new air-cooled machine to be used for permanent waves and invited public inspection of the machine. ## Junior Chamber Meets At Governor Clinton, Endorses New Officers

Meeting last night in the Governor Clinton Hotel for the purpose of electing officers and directors for the ensuing year and drum up some activity in the wake of its three months' inertia, the newly organized Kingston Junior Chamber of Commerce placed the same men in office who served in the beginning of the club's formation on March 16. The officers elected by unanimous approval of the group were: H. G. LaMothe, president; William Harndenbergh, first vice-president; William Hinkley, second vice-president; S. C. Hancock, secretary; Harold Clayton, treasurer; N. Jansen Fowler, legal counsel. The three new directors chosen were Robert Herzog, Howard Shurter and Arthur Kaplan.

It was also decided at the meeting that the Junior Chamber would meet the second Tuesday of each month and that a Charter Dinner would be given sometime in June.

President LaMothe explained to the members that the sum total of the Junior Chamber's activity thus far in the civic life of the community amounted to exactly nothing and he stated that it was time the organization began to function. This statement met with the approval of the group and there was much discussion on many projects the club should enter into at this time. The question of the installation of "Park-O-Meter" came up for considerable argument and although the majority of the men present held identical views on the "Park-O-Meter" problem, it was decided that the group withhold its opinion until a committee had investigated the pros and cons of the movement.

A variety of undertakings which might be sponsored by the Junior Chamber were discussed from the floor and each project was referred to the board of directors for approval. Following the meeting, President LaMothe met with the directors to discuss plans for the club's activity during the summer months.

Sam N. Mann to Take Over Supervisorship of Surplus Commodities

Sam N. Mann, well known realtor and former deputy city clerk, will take over the position of supervisor of the distribution of federal surplus foods and clothing in Kingston on Monday, replacing John J. Duffy of Rosendale, who was appointed to the position the first of May, but did not take over the duties until later in the month. Mr. Duffy, it is understood, is to be transferred elsewhere by the WPA.

When Mr. Duffy was appointed May 1, Mayor Heitsman refused to recognize the appointment on the ground that if any change was to be made in the office it should be given to a resident of Kingston. The position had been filled efficiently since January 1, by Albert H. Shultis of this city.

Finally a compromise was reached whereby it was agreed that Mr. Duffy was to hold the position until Mr. Mann had received the necessary intensive training to take over the position.

Mr. Mann is well qualified to fill the position. He has also served the city as a member of the common council.

'BLACK LEGION' SUSPECTED IN 50 MURDERS

Rapidly widening disclosures of the activities of the strange "Black Legion" in Michigan indicate that the organization may be behind 50 murders, and that membership may be in the neighborhood of 135,000. Dite Hawley (upper left), believed brigadier general of 13 county units of the Black Legion, is under subpoena to testify in Jackson, Mich., in the flogging of Paul E. Every (center), prison guard, who died soon after. Ray Ernest (upper right) is believed a district leader. Below are pistols, a rifle, ammunition and other paraphernalia found in Ernest's home. ## Search For Evidence Against Black Legion

"executions" to intimidate recalcitrant members, terrify radicals, obtain political preferment, and to punish wayward husbands.

Reports that the federal government might enter the investigation were denied at Washington by J. Edgar Hoover, head of the federal bureau of investigation. He said "no federal angle" had been brought to the bureau's attention.

"John Doe" Inquiry.

At Jackson, Mich., Prosecutor Owen Dudley said developments were imminent in a "John Doe" inquiry into charges that Paul Every, state prison guard, was beaten so severely that he died six weeks later, when he attempted to withdraw from the Black Legion.

Dudley said testimony of witnesses indicated that virtually every prison guard had been approached by Black Legion recruiting agents.

"Apparently the Legion considered the guards a fertile field because they are accustomed to the use of firearms," Dudley said.

Among the membership requirements contained in Black Legion literature seized in Jackson were possession of a pistol, and willingness to use it on orders from superior officers.

In Flint, Mich., Prosecutor Andrew J. Transue said Black Legion was strongly entrenched in Genesee county with 2,000 members and declared he had information that it was "organized for murder and intimidation." He said a grand jury investigation was under consideration.

Threat at Battle Creek.

In Battle Creek, Police Chief Hugh Gordon said he had received a report that at least one man was threatened with violence because he refused to complete his initiation into the Black Legion.

An attempted slaying at Lansing, Mich., on May 14, was under investigation by state police.

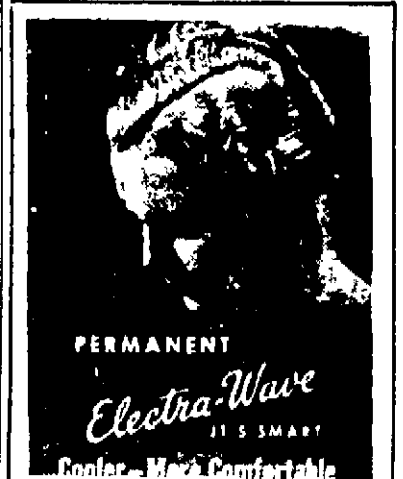

Denunciation of the Black Legion, whose literature described it as an organization for the defense of Protestantism, came from the Detroit Methodist Preachers' Association. A resolution adopted yesterday said the Black Legion threatened the liberty and lives of our citizens in the name of Protestantism and patriotism, and that we deny their right to speak or act for any body, we denounce them, they have no part or place in American society.

In an interview here Iupp, a milk inspector for the Detroit department of health, said the Black Legion's members here were good people in all walks of life who were brought to their senses when communism and other isms crept into the United States from foreign countries.

He parried all questions about reports that wavering members were subjected to violence. That candidates were pledged to give armed support to the Legion and about whippings, by pleading the sacredness of the ritual.

Dr. Townsend takes a walk, and if this thing goes much farther, maybe he'll choose to run.

Cat Spurns Aid Offered by Firemen

Monday afternoon the children of the Industrial Home received a visit from the local fire department, but it was not the annual picnic call. This time a stray cat was perched in the top limbs of one of the tall trees in the Home yard and no amount of coaxing could bring her down to earth—so the firemen came to the rescue with the large aerial truck from the Central Fire Station.

Under the direction of Marshall Miller, attempts were made with ropes to dislodge the cat, but finally the large aerial ladder was raised. Just then the cat decided the ladder was coming too close for comfort and down she came, taking the last 10 or 12 feet in one drop which landed her directly in front of a dog.

This was like "jumping from the frying pan into the fire" as the dog immediately gave chase and the last seen of the two were a streak of grey and brown going up the street.

However the Home children and a crowd of neighbors received a benefit from the proceeding as they witnessed a demonstration of the extension ladder on the fire apparatus.

Three Days Remain To Renew Licenses

Only three more days remain in which to obtain new operators' and chauffeurs' licenses which will be required by all drivers on Monday next. Saturday is Memorial Day, a holiday, when public buildings will be closed. This includes the issuing offices for licenses.

Many people are planning a weekend trip to enjoy the double holiday, Memorial Day and Sunday. Unless driving credentials are obtained prior to leaving many may find themselves in difficulties with the authorities before Monday.

Usually on the first of June or immediately thereafter police officials begin a check on operators to determine whether the licenses have been renewed for the ensuing year. Failure to provide the renewed blank may result in an unpleasant visit to the court.

The Fair street office of the local Motor Vehicle Bureau office has been crowded for the past few days with applicants who sought renewals.

NAVIGATION NOTES

The tug "Empire," which sank while taking on coal on April 27, returned to service yesterday after undergoing an extensive overhauling.

The steam canal boat "James Egan" and "James W. Follette," which have lain at the Hillstrand shipyard during the past winter and a portion of the spring, went into commission last Thursday.

"Follette" proceeded to New York where she picked up a load of Bas canal boats destined for the Hager Canal.

The Day Lines "Hendrick Hudson" and "Alexander Hamilton" made their first trips in the lower reaches of the river last week. The latter boat opens the Albany service tomorrow, with the "Hudson" following on Thursday. The remainder of the fleet—"Peter Stuyvesant," "Chauncey M. Depew" and "Robert Fulton"—will resume operations during the week in order that all vessels may be ready for the Memorial Day week-end.

Proposed Game Tonight.

The softball game between the Royal Arcanum and the Fulton teams scheduled for Monday evening, will be played "this evening" at the armory diamond.

DENIES HUSBAND BEAT HER

Mrs. Rebecca Poole, shown with her infant daughter, Nancy Joan, started police seeking a new motive for the "execution" of her husband, Charles A. Poole, WPA worker, at the hands of the Black Legion, reportedly a terrorist band, when she flatly denied that her husband beat her as members of the legion charged. (Associated Press Photo)

Home Institute

DON'T OFFEND WITH LETTERS

A bread-and-butter note for Mrs. March's charming weekend party—written by a fellow member of the Home Institute—was a bombshell. How the flames in etiquette glared out in black and white! Writing all pushed up to the top of the page, cheap little slang phrases such as "sure" and "well," revealing colloquialisms such as "your place" and "aim to" all in that silly, childish handwriting, too!

Of course Jennie wrote it in purple ink on pinkish notepaper instead of white or cream. And on both sides of the paper she raked her brain for a closing phrase, and wrote "Your friend, Mrs. James Brown."

Now "Gladys" Jones writes Brown. The correct phrase would be "Mrs. Brown" and "Mrs. Brown" is not a closing phrase. For the correct way to close a letter, see the book.

Letter, etiquette. How simple for Jennie to have written, "We had a most delightful week-end with you, and I hope that before long we may have a visit from you."

There are prescribed rules of letter etiquette which cultivated people follow as a matter of course.

Smoke House Poetry.
Grandad.

How queer, the glorious gift of thought
Greatest of all the miracles God has wrought
Though spark Divine, of envious time the prey,
Whose hand remorseless steals our wits away.

Formed for dominion and conceptions vast
Yet shrinks to second childhood at the last;
Forgets the present, and is prone to dwell
On tales of wonder he once loved so well.

His dimming eyes, his vagrant wandering wits,
Can scarce recall the place wherein he sits
Yet well he knows poor Crusoe's dreadful fate
And joys again with Christian at the wicket gate.

Now dreams of boyhood and his early home
Banish raged Carthage and Imperial Rome;
Recall with lively sense the tinging smart
Of Mother's vibrant slipper on a useful part.

Confused bewildered fancy, soon forgetting these,
Drifts out with sailor Sinbad on uncharted seas
Leaves Casim Baba, frantic in the robber's cave,
To meet the stricken mourners at Cock Robin's grave.

Anon he vaguely dwells with deeper thought
On life, and all that changeable time has wrought,
Wrapped in the misty shadow of departed years
He wets his withered cheek with wasted tears.

Business may be rotten, but there still remains opportunity to lay up treasures in heaven.

New York Pens Among Leaders

Ithaca, N. Y., May 26.—New York state pens made one of the best showings of the year during the thirty-third week of New York state egg laying tests, says R. C. Ogilvie of the State College of Agriculture and Supervisor of the tests.

Of the seventeen high pens at the central New York test at Horseheads, nine are from the Empire State. They are owned by Maynard I. Smith, Elmira; Rich poultry farm, Hobart; Fred Schenck, Milford; Ormsby poultry farm, Bath; Schwegler's hatchery, Buffalo; Alfred C. Etzel, Monroe; Dumka Brothers, Whitesboro; H. W. Van Winkle, Camden; and Gerald Leasure, Nichols.

Eleven out of the seventeen leading pens in the western test at Stafford for the week are from New York state. In the Leghorn group are pens from Kauder of New Paltz; Maynard Smith of Elmira; square deal poultry farm of Kendall; Bodine's of Chemung; William Gillmeister, Middleport; E. C. Dunham, Marysville; Taylor's poultry farm, Newark. In the Rhode Island Red class are pens from Homer S. Kuey, Seneca Falls; Douglass Manor farm, Pulaski; and Webster poultry farm, Auburn.

Results to date are well above the average of tests for the first four years, and show improvement compared with the records of a year ago, says Mr. Ogilvie. Based on the average production at the end of the first six months, the annual production should be close to 230 eggs a bird, and this, according to Mr. Ogilvie, may be a new record for the country.

Attendants to Benefit.
Callander, Ont., May 26 (AP)—While the parents of the Dionne quintuplets still decline to accept a home built for their children's earnings, an eight-room house will be erected shortly for the hospital staff who care for the youngsters.

It was disclosed today, Dr. Bafoe explained the 13-room building, the quintuplets now occupy is too small for the five little girls and the staff of two nurses, two guards, a cook and a laundress.

See Need for New Cherry Varieties

Geneva, N. Y., May 26.—Varieties of sweet cherries free of the serious defects of present standard varieties are needed to place this delicious fruit on an equal footing with apples, pears, peaches, and plums in commercial fruit growing, says Prof. F. M. Coe, writing in the current issue of "Farm Research," the quarterly magazine of the State Experiment Station here, on the sweet cherry breeding program under way at the station.

Sweet cherries are popular with consumers because of their crisp juicy flesh, refreshing flavor, and their appearance on the market at a time when fresh fruits are scarce. But low yields due to serious faults of most of the varieties now grown make sweet cherry growing impractical as a commercial venture, he says. Lack of hardiness in bud and wood, lack of vigor and productivity, and susceptibility to certain diseases and to predations of birds are cited as among the chief obstacles to be overcome in breeding better varieties of sweet cherries.

900 Seedlings Under Test.
The chief objective of the station's cherry breeding program is to combine in two or three new varieties all of the good qualities of sweet cherries in general with double the average annual yield of saleable fruit and without loss in size and quality as represented by the best of present-day varieties. It is also hoped to obtain superior varieties that will ripen earlier and later than the present main-crop varieties.

As an indication of the difficulties encountered in breeding cherries, Prof. Coe points out that the station has been breeding sweet cherries for years and now has over 900 seedlings, but to date only two new varieties have been named and introduced and even these are not all that is desired. Improvements in technique made in recent years may speed up the cherry breeding program. It is said, although at best it is a time-consuming job. As a good beginning, however, over 300 crosses were made in 1935 involving the hand pollination of over 30,000 blossoms from which some 9,000 seeds were obtained. Who knows but that out of this lot may come the long-sought-for sweet cherry of the future.

Sawkill Gallery to Open.

Woodstock, May 26.—A year ago a new art gallery was opened in Woodstock by the Sawkill Painters and Sculptors. This venture was sponsored by a group of artists interested in bringing the artist and the public into closer contact in frequent exhibits throughout the state and by reasonably priced paintings and sculptures. It was an interesting and successful experiment. Exhibitions have been welcomed and great interest shown in the activities of the group. The gallery will open early in June.

TIPS ON CONTRACT

By TOM O'NEIL

Double Squeeze.

When both defenders have to protect the same suit and each has also to protect a suit of his own in the process of discarding on a long suit of the declarer's, then there are present the elements for a two-way, or double, squeeze.

It contrasts with a simple squeeze in which one defender has to protect two suits, or a progressive squeeze, in which one defender has to guard three suits.

Hal Kemp, New York band leader, seems to know his bridge as well as his music—at least the play of the cards—if the following double squeeze he executed is a criterion:

Kemp, who dealt, bid one club. After West's pass North went two no trump. East passed and Kemp soared to seven clubs. He assumed quite a lot, since the two no trump bid could have been made North without both the heart and diamond aces.

The bidding could have been precise with the use of Culbertson's no trump conventions, such as: One club by South; one diamond North; three clubs South; three no trump North; four diamonds South; four no trump North; seven clubs. West opened the fourth best heart. Kemp could count as certain, two spade tricks, two heart tricks, two diamond tricks, six clubs, a total of 12. Whence the thirteenth trick? One way was the diamond finesse. But how to make the hand if the diamond queen lay East? Kemp found a way.

The chances were that West led from the heart queen. If that were so and the diamond queen were East, West would have to guard against the threat of the heart jack and East would have to prevent a diamond in the South hand from taking a trick. A threat card in a squeeze must be over the player threatened. If in addition, both East and West had to guard spades, the thirteenth trick might be made in spades.

On that theory the opening lead was taken with the singleton king of hearts South. Adverse trumps were drawn. The two top diamonds were played. On the ace of hearts a diamond was discarded South.

Returning to the South hand via the ace of spades, Kemp played out all his clubs. The situation with one club left to play was:

NORTH.
S—J 7
H—K
D—Q
C—4

SOUTH.
S—3
H—D 9
D—9
C—4

The lead of the club four compelled a spade discard West and East, making both of North's spades good, much to the disgust of Kemp's bitter professional and bridge rival, Emil Coleman, who sat West. If West had shed a heart, North's jack would have been good. If East had discarded the diamond South's nine would have taken a trick.

Events Around The Empire State

Greenwich, N. Y., May 26 (AP).—This village boasts an inland, indoor shipyard which in a year produces more than 700,000 sailboats, battle-ships, barges, dories and other craft. They're toys and more-than-75-artisans are busy now turning out toy boats for the seashore and lakeside trade. Mid-June will see them starting work on next Christmas' orders.

Albany, N. Y., May 26 (AP).—Nassau county acquired a purchasing department today under a bill signed by Governor Lehman. The measure, introduced by Assemblyman Leonard W. Hall, Nassau Republican, provides for the appointment of a purchasing agent and deputy, prescribes their powers and duties, and provides for bonding them and their subordinates.

Another bill, also sponsored by Hall and signed by the governor, extends the boundaries of the city of Garden Cove by annexing part of the village of Sea Cliff.

Albany, N. Y., May 26 (AP).—Motorists were reminded by the state motor vehicle bureau today that only three more days remain in which to obtain new operators' licenses required after the end of the month. The state offices will be closed Saturday, Memorial Day, and Sunday. The bureau pointed out that prompt use of the mails will enable the motorists to avoid "the congestion, rush and delay inevitable in bureau offices, during the last few days."

MODES OF THE MOMENT

Jacket-frock ensembles strike clever summer note.

Liana Merwin

Smartly-tailored jacket-frock ensembles designed in suit expression are an important note in the summer mode. They are practical as well as smart, because of their clever adaptability to many occasions during vacations, week-end holidays or travel.

Many of these new costumes, include a matching hat—a useful and decidedly sporty addition to fashions designed for summer days.

Another noteworthy feature of these new styles is favorably enjoyed by nautical prints. Many style-houses are sponsoring sailor and sea faring motifs in showing of summer's apparel.

Pilot wheels, stars, fish, anchors, and compasses are used individually or in jumble designs. A nautical jumble pattern in printed silk linen is used to fashion the two-piece jacket-frock costume sketched above. The dress combines a two-toned gilet with a white skirt and shows roomy kick pleats at front for hem fullness. Red is the predominating color of the nautical printed, single-breasted jacket which features short sleeves and two tailored pockets. The matching hat has an adjustable brim and may be worn in several smart ways.

Bold Venture to Race No More This Year

New York, May 26 (AP)—The race for three-year old turf honors was a wide open affair again today as a result of the injury which has placed Morton L. Schwartz's Bold Venture on the sidelines for the remainder of the year.
The winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, owned by Morton L. Schwartz of New York, bowed a tendon in his right foreleg yesterday while working out at Belmont Park. Although the bow was not a bad one, Trainer Max Hirsch declared there was no chance of getting the son of St. Germans back to the races this year.
Bold Venture was being prepped for the June 6th running of the $50,000 Belmont Stakes, in which he was slated to defend his laurels against other leading contenders for the three-year old crown, including J. E. Widener's Brevity, William Woodward's Granville, C. V. White's Red Rain and Ogden Phipps' White Cockade.

Central Hudsons Win
Butterball Doyle's twisters were too much for Headquarters Battery Monday night and the Central Hudsons took the game 14-2 at Barmann's Field. Gadd and Reynolds banded out homers for the winners. Batteries were: Central Hudson—Doyle and Crawl; Headquarters—Preston and Snyder. A feature of the game was Tom Morrisey's circus catch, with one hand of North's long fly, with three men on bases. The score stood 2 each at the time.
Canfields Upset B. P. W.
Lewis, Lukas and Prunel, rapped out homers for the B. P. W. team Monday night, in their game against Canfields, but that wasn't enough and Canfields took the game 11-9. Tinkle and Cudney were the winning battery, with Norton and Dederick working for the losers.

Rockwell pitched for Albany Avenue with Eighmy doing the tossing for the Comforters. DeGruff, Comforter third sacker, and Terwilliger, first baseman for the Baptists, also garnered round trip tickets.
A home run by Ballard and a combination of fine pitching by Hyatt and Williams, gave the Clinton Avenue team an easy 21-2 win over Bethany Chapel.

English Derby Wide Open Race

Epsom Downs, Eng., May 26 (AP)—Derby addicts, back to the old times, unanimously nominate tomorrow's renewal of England's famous three-year old classic as the strangest and most wide-open race in their memory.
When the field of 27 tears away over a track that bucks and rolls like the sea, the Aga Khan's Taj Akbar will be the favorite although for no rhyme or reason.
As the result of the absence of a really outstanding three-year old, like Bahram last year, the bookmakers, who are puzzled as anybody else, simply let the clients name their own poison.
Yesterday's exciting flurry over William Woodward's Boswell, one of the pair entered by the New York banker, was a typical situation where one's guess is as good as another.
Lord Astor's Pay Up, the second choice, owes his position to the fact that he captured the season's first classic, the 2,000 guineas at Newmarket. Yet that was only a mile race and Pay Up has yet to prove his stamina over the mile and a half route.
Sir Alfred Butt's Noble King holds his position as the third choice principally because he has proved to be a good stayer over a heavy track.

Will Play at Block Park Wednesday Night

The Block Park diamond, which has been greatly improved and is now in fine condition, will be the scene of a softball game Wednesday night, when the C. & R. Social Club team will play the Blue Sox.
The game is scheduled to start at 8:30. Probable starting battery for the C. & R. outfit will be Snyder and Woods.

Ten minutes later Joe, with a crying new dog named in his pockets, was leading "Brownie" down the street on the end of a new lead attached to a new collar.

Judge Foster Reserves Decision in Winston Case, Jury Released

After four witnesses had been sworn in the action brought by The Citizens National Bank of Orange, Va., against James O. Winston, an action to recover on a promissory note, the jurors were discharged from further consideration of the case and briefs were submitted to Justice Foster who held that the case involved only a question, and he reserved decision. The plaintiff seeks to recover the amount of a note and the defense claims that 300 shares of bank stock which had been put up as collateral has been taken over by the bank and therefore the note has been met. This is denied by the bank, which claims the stock taken is worthless because the bank has since failed. Michael Nardone appeared for plaintiffs and Augustus Shafeldt for the defendant.

Negligence Action.
At the conclusion of the note action a jury was taken in a $50,000 negligence action which is brought by Gabriel Russano of Glasco against Ellen M. and James Murphy. Russano seeks in addition to recovery of money for personal injuries to recover for loss of wages.

The plaintiff claims that on August 1, 1932, as he was proceeding up Broadway on a motorcycle he was struck down by a car of Mr. Murphy which was being driven down Broadway and which turned into the city hall driveway.

Russano claims that the car turned without any warning and that he did not know the car was to make the turn until both were very close to the drive and when he saw the car swing left to enter the city hall drive he was unable to avoid the collision. He suffered a leg injury which resulted in amputation and he claims loss of wages as well as hospital fees, doctors' bills and the cost of an artificial leg.

On the stand Russano testified he was operating his car up Broadway on his way home. He intended to go to Albany avenue and then out to Glasco. Near the city hall drive he was driving near the curb when he saw the Murphy car turn left to enter the drive. At the time this car was so close he had no time to avoid it he said. He denied he had just passed a car on Broadway and was "cutting in" when the accident happened. He testified there was no other car in the vicinity at the time and said he had not passed a car coming up Broadway just prior to the accident.

"Unable To Work."
For months after the accident he was unable to work and he testified he then went to work as a shoemaker and worked six months without pay. Then he was given $6 a week and later $8 a week. For a time he was employed in the bus company at Saugerties and now he is in business at Glasco. He said he had been in business for about a month and he earned about $8 a week now. A bill of Dr. Jacobson for $750 was offered in evidence and also a bill of the Kingston City Hospital for $527.75. The artificial leg cost $175.

On the cross-examination Russano said he had been operating a motorcycle about three months when the accident happened. Asked by Assemlifman J. Edward Conway who appears for the defendant how long he had been a licensed operator of a motorcycle, Russano said four or five days prior to the accident. The defendant denies negligence and contends that the plaintiff was at fault and through his own negligence he was injured and lost his left leg.

Chris J. Flanagan appears for the plaintiff and J. Edward Conway for the defendant.

Police Keep Watch Over Remington Rand. Rest of Nation Alert

By The Associated Press

Police began a quiet watch over six plants of Remington Rand Inc. in the east and middle west today as a strike call was handed to workers estimated at 6,000 by labor leaders and 4,200 by the company.

Precautionary measures were requested from police and National Guard officials in more than a half dozen sections of the country as labor troubles either got under way or threatened among industrial and agricultural workers.

Only a few scattered instances of trouble in the strike centers were reported by police. Gun fights between strikers and workers led to 15 more arrests in the vegetable fields of Southern California.

A few arrests for allegedly passing out Communist literature were made as picketers took up their posts at Remington Rand plants at Syracuse, Ill. and Tonawanda, N. Y. Strikes also were called at the company plants at Middletown, Conn., and Norwood and Marietta, Ohio. Police guards at Illon were armed with tear gas.

James H. Rand, Jr., president of the company, announced that the Syracuse plant would be closed permanently and strong efforts made to keep the others open.

"Less than 10 per cent of our employees want to strike," he said. A few minor casualties occurred in California as members of the Mexican vegetable workers unions, who are demanding 35 cents an hour instead of the 22 1/2 cents scale, continued their walkout against the Japanese vegetable fields.

Cotton planters in East Arkansas insisted that cultivation of fields was under way as usual, although the southern tenant farmers' union claimed that 3,000 workers were on strike.

Thirty union workers of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company plants in Ohio awaited trial tomorrow on charges of violating a state anti-riot statute.

National Guard officers investigated strikers' requests for protection by troops in a strike at the Wheeling Steel Corporation plant at Portsmouth, O., where 5,500 workers are affected. Iron, steel and tin workers contend that its bargaining rights under the national labor relations act were not respected.

6,000 barbers were called on strike in the financial district of New York city. They demand shorter hours, higher pay.

Three seamen were arrested after a fist fight in front of union headquarters in New York city as the Industrial Union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers considered a strike to support its collective bargaining with the United Dry Docks, Inc.

In Washington William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, charged that "the wave of strikes was bound to follow the supreme court's decisions" against the NRA and Guffey acts.

size and jobbed out at $1.25, occasionally as high as $1.50 per crate containing 24 bunches.

The supply of green vegetables from nearby and distant states were generally moderate this morning. The price trend was upward on fancy beans, green peas and bunched carrots. On the other hand, declines were registered on asparagus, broccoli, celery, green corn and peppers. Price fluctuations on most other commodities were generally small and unimportant.

The market for old crop white potatoes was stronger, while new crop held steady. Supplies of old crop potatoes were light and new crop moderate. Old crop Maine 100-lb. sacks Green Mountain potatoes U. S. No. 1, wholesaled at $3.00-$3.15, while South Carolina barreled rollers U. S. No. 1, ranged from $6.00-$6.75.

Defer Examination Of George Salaky

An adjournment of one week, until June 3, has been taken in the matter of the examination of George Salaky, Jr., now in the county jail awaiting trial of an indictment which charges murder, first degree, for the shooting of Harry Siegel of Ulster Heights last April 2. An order has been issued out of county court by County Judge Frederick G. Traver for a mental examination of defendant. Application for the examination was made by Assistant District Attorney N. LeVan Haver.

The order directed that the examination be held May 27 but a postponement has been taken until next week.

Salaky is charged with having shot Siegel with a shot-gun on the morning of April 2 when Siegel came to a milk drop at Ulster Heights to leave the daily milk. Salaky was picked up later in Ellenville and charged with the shooting after he had attempted to give himself up at the home of Sergeant Hopkins in Ellenville. The sergeant was at the scene of the shooting when Salaky made his way to the Hopkins home.

Lehman Silent On Campaign Coaxing

Albany, N. Y., May 26 (AP).—Nearly a week has passed since Governor Lehman announced he would not be a candidate for re-election, and in spite of the entreaties of Democratic leaders the governor has given no public indication that he is reconsidering his decision.

The governor continued his silence in the face of President Roosevelt's reiteration four days ago that he hoped Mr. Lehman would run again.

The governor has cast aside all questions with the comment, "My statement speaks for itself."

He referred to the formal announcement last Wednesday in which he said he would retire at the end of his second term next December.

Meanwhile, President Roosevelt returned to Washington from his Hyde Park home, apparently without having communicated with Mr. Lehman.

The governor is cleaning up the remaining legislation left on his desk by the Legislature. He is expected to sign the bill before going to the Democratic convention in Philadelphia next week.

Adequate Force To Quell Arabs

London, May 26 (AP).—The serious spread of Arab riots and bloodshed in Palestine is being met by "thoroughly reorganized and adequate forces" to prevent an actual rebellion, it was stated today in official circles.

Arabs lost the Jewish immigration and sale of land to Jews are threatened to produce a landless Arab proletariat with Jews the master of Palestine.

Jewish immigration to Palestine increased from 2,514 in 1929 to 42,358 in 1934 with an estimated 100,000 in the last two years. The influx is destroying the Arab peasant as promised by the late "Lawrence of Arabia" of a Pan-Arab kingdom embracing Palestine, Iraq and Arabia.

It is estimated there are 200,000 Jews in Palestine as compared with 350,000 Arabs.

SCOUTS OF TROOP NO. 12 HIKE UP MOUNTAIN.

At 9:20 o'clock Sunday morning the Scouts and some fathers left Broadway and Albany avenue for their hike up Hunter mountain, and arrived at the start of the trail at 11 o'clock. After a checkup the climb was started with 27 present, and all eager for whatever lay ahead. At first the going was easy but the climbing soon proved to be a hard task for most of the boys, and frequent rests were called which were welcomed by all—even the most experienced. One of the fathers started about a half hour after the others and caught up with them when about a third of the way up. Near the top the trail was made like steps, which was hard on the muscles, there a spring was found, and finally after one hour and 50 minutes of strenuous climbing the top was reached. Upon arriving there the Scouts immediately went up the fire tower where a splendid view of the valley was had, although the atmosphere was hazy and a poor visibility of further views was the result. After examining the surrounding territory the Scouts proceeded to cook dinner. After that they busied themselves chiseling their names in the rocks with some cold nails found there. The warden there kindly explained every thing to all.

After gathering together all of the Scouts a roll call was held and then the boys started down a different trail, which ran along the top of the mountain for quite a ways before it began to slope. After supper a game of softball was had between the boys and the fathers, the latter winning with a score of 21 to 15. As it was getting late and dark, the group reluctantly got in the cars and headed for home, all very tired and hoping that next year we may have another just as good.

This is an annual affair of the troop, this being the fifth such hike. The boys and leaders wish to thank the fathers for their support in furnishing transportation, and wish more might have been able to.

Astronomers know what's going on 100,000,000 light-years away, but no one of 'em can tell us what the other side of the moon looks like.

Fine Organ Recital At Holy Cross Church

It was a great pity that there was not a very much larger audience in attendance upon the organ recital given by Ernest White, organist of Bard College, Columbia University, Annandale-on-Hudson at Holy Cross Church on Monday evening, for it was exceptionally fine in every particular.

Mr. White knows admirably the art of preparing and arranging a program properly and pleasingly. And it was most gratifying to have only authentic organ music by masters of that incomparable instrument on the program.

Mr. White is a finished and skillful organist whose handling of the manuals and of the registration of the numbers he played as well as his pedaling were a joy because of their splendid musicianship, a better word than the cold one of "technique" in this case. One all too seldom hears such finished and well-nigh perfect legato organ work throughout.

The opening and commanding chord of the "Concerto in G Major—Allegro, Grave, Presto"—by Antonio Vivaldi assured the audience that they were to hear real organ music, and set them in tune for the same. The clear call of the Allegro, the spiritual loveliness of the Grave and the joyousness of the Presto were very refreshing.

The "Chorale Preludes" by Johannes Brahms—"O Blessed Faithful Spirits," "Deck Thyself With Gladness" and "O World, I E'en Must Leave Thee" were played with excellent taste, especially the last one in which there was more exultation than regret.

Mr. White played the "Paritta" "O God Thou Mighty God," by J. S. Bach as it should be played. This chorale with variants for each verse of the hymn, giving the hearer an exalted sense of God, the infinite, and God, the Creator of the infinitesimal, of supplication, worship, and the final praise of the heavenly host itself, was completely satisfying.

The program closed with a graceful "Rondo" by Francois Couperin, a lovely singing "Cantabile" by Joseph Jongen; a lighter "Scherzetto" by Louis Vierne and three delightful compositions with no name given for the composers, leading one to think that the lovely "Berceuse," the brilliant "Divertissement" and the very effective "Westminster Chimes" were the compositions of the organist. This seemed the more possible as he is a very modest young man in any event they brought the very refreshing concert to a finale to be happily remembered.

12th National Spelling Bee at Washington

Washington, May 26 (AP)—Warm-ing up on a few double diphthongs, 17 boys and girls from all parts of the nation plunged into a great word battle today—the 12th Annual National Spelling Bee.

Although 14-year-old Bruce Ackerman of Peoria, Ill., climbed the contest stage an odds-on-favorite—because he finished third last year—the youthful word jugglers nervously eyed a combatant from Rockville Center, N. Y.

"Just look at his name," said one. "You've got to be a speller to learn it."

The name is—Trygve Tholfsen. The words are being selected from a specially prepared spelling book into which its author, Professor Frederick S. Breed, of the University of Chicago, has crammed 2,000 of the most difficult tongue twisters in the language.

The book—a sort of verbal chamber of horrors—contains a wide assortment of "ible" and "able" ends and a choice picking of "ei" and "ie" brain benders.

One mistake and the speller is out except when the contest narrows down to two, and then if both miss the word, each is given a try at a new one.

The 17 contestants have eliminated a field of almost 200,000 school children between the ages of 11 and 15.

Daily newspapers are sponsoring the contest. The winner will receive $500 out of a total of $1,750 prize money. A prize of $300 will be given the runner-up, and $100 to the third place holder. Other awards range downward from $75 to $50 each for the last eight places.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.
